

Transitions of Troy

A Bicentennial Celebration of Troy, Ohio

1900-Present

The Troy Bicentennial History Book Committee in connection with M.T. Publishing Company, is sponsoring a pictorial history of Troy, Ohio in celebration of Troy's 200th Anniversary. Transitions of Troy – A Bicentennial Celebration of Troy, Ohio 1900-Present will contain hundreds of historical photos from our town, past and present.

As a nonprofit organization, our purpose in publishing a pictorial history of Troy, Ohio is to preserve historical records for the enjoyment and education of future generations. There is no better time than now to ensure that our history is not lost or forgotten over time.

This 11" x 8½" coffee-table size landscape edition will be beautifully bound in a hard cover with a color dust jacket specially designed for this publication and will contain hundreds of photographs and historical highlights. Only the finest materials will be utilized to produce this historical book. The final book page count will depend on the number of book orders– so we need your support!

It will be necessary to collect orders in advance, as we are going to print only a limited number of books. All money will be held in escrow at a local bank for payment to the publishers at a later date. It is the committee's hope to have this book published by the end of 2013 in time to celebrate Troy's 200th Anniversary in 2014.

In addition, your historical photographs are needed for inclusion in this publication. You may contact us regarding photographs or material that you would like us to consider for use in the book. We need original photographs or professional reproductions of your non-replaceable photographs (No xerox or computer print outs– These will not be included in the book). Be assured that your photos will be handled with care and returned to you. All photographs will be reviewed for content and clarity and selected based on space availability. Please contact Nancy Lane-Feldner at 937-418-4245 or nancy@panthercreekdesignphoto.com regarding your photographs or material.

Transitions of Troy – A Bicentennial Celebration of Troy, Ohio 1900-Present is currently available at the discounted pre-publication price of $37.50 (plus tax). Don't miss this once in a lifetime opportunity! Complete and send in the order form on or before January 31, 2013. Please help us make this a publication that Troy, Ohio will be proud of!

Sincerely,
Troy Bicentennial History Book Committee

Patron Page Information

The pictorial history of Troy, Transitions of Troy – A Bicentennial Celebration of Troy, Ohio 1900-Present, will contain a PATRON section of Troy businesses, churches, schools, organizations and families as recorded in 2012 for future generations to read.

As a significant member of the community, you will want to put the history of your business, church, school, organization or family in print for future generations and historians to enjoy. All Troy businesses, churches, schools, clubs, organizations or families are invited to submit their written histories for prominent display in the professionally designed history book. Imagine the prestige that will be rendered to your business, church, school, organization or family by including it in this PERMANENT RECORD of Troy, Ohio. The book will be a minimum of 104 pages, 11 x 8½ inches and hard bound. Only high quality paper will be used for excellent photo reproduction.

In writing a memorial or tribute for a family member, include the date when they came to the county, the state or county from which they originated and their vocation before or after settlement here. You should include interesting stories, marriage records, children, jobs, military service, education and organizations. Your memorial/tribute should be written in the third person (he, she, they).

In writing your business, church, school or organization history, include any information you feel pertinent: the date your business, church, school or organization was started, location(s), who founded the business, church or organization, growth, etc. and a historic and current photo of your business, church, school or organization (if possible).

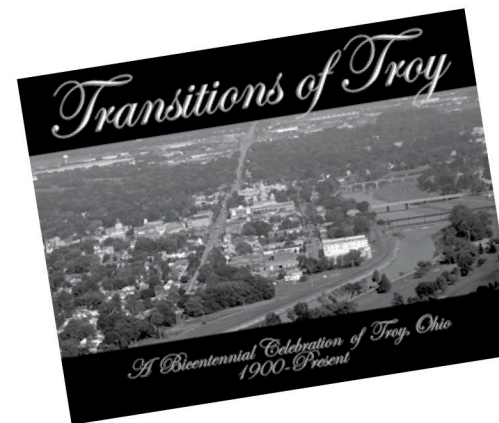

For a full page, you will want to submit approximately 800 words with two photos. For a half page history, please submit approximately 300 words with one photo. Other pictorial county history books published by our publisher are on display locally – our book will be of the same fine quality.

Patron pages are being sold for $235.00 for a full black and white page, and $185.00 for a half black and white page. Color pages are being sold for $500.00 for a full color page, and $400.00 for a half color page. A full black and white or full color page purchase includes a complimentary copy of the book.

If you have questions regarding this section of the book or for submitting material and payment, please feel free to call any of the contacts listed on the previous page.

It will be the perfect heirloom for your children and grandchildren!
